The Lightest Touch: Isabelle Greene’s Enduring Design for the Lovelace Garden

Lisa’s story on the Lovelace Garden, designed by Isabelle Greene, FASLA, is in the current issue of Landscape Architecture Magazine. The garden is best known for its beautiful swimming pool, which Greene pioneered the use of natural stone in swimming pools and spas, and the Lovelace pool is one of her masterworks.

The garden is best known for its beautiful swimming pool, which Greene pioneered the use of natural stone in swimming pools and spas, and the Lovelace pool is one of her masterworks.

Isabelle worked with owners Jon and Liliane Lovelace for forty years to perfect the garden. We hope you enjoy reading about this superb and enduring landscape masterpiece.

All photographs by Marion Brenner

Lisa Gimmy Landscape Architecture is a professional firm offering master planning, site planning, and landscape design. Since its founding in 1992, LGLA has designed master planning, site planning, and landscape design for public and private spaces across the United States and the world. LGLA’s projects range from urban streets and public parks to private residences and landscapes. This newsletter is delivered periodically to clients and friends of LGLA.

If someone else you know might be interested, please forward this newsletter to them.

Lisa Gimmy Landscape Architecture
18800 Venice Boulevard Suite 216
Los Angeles, CA 90034
Phone 310-202-8320 • Fax 310-202-8350
www.lglalandscape.com

© Lisa Gimmy Landscape Architecture
Manage your preferences | Opt out using TrueRemove™

Got this as a forward? Sign up to receive our future emails.

View this email online.